

CATHEDRAL HOUSE

A SELECTION OF FIVE BRAND NEW 2 BEDROOM
APARTMENTS IN ONE OF THE MOST DESIRABLE
RESIDENTIAL AREAS IN CARDIFF

WELCOME

TO CATHEDRAL HOUSE IN THE
VIBRANT & MODERN CAPITAL
CITY OF WALES

The Pontcanna region, affectionately known as the 'Chelsea of Cardiff', has a reputation for being one of the trendiest spots in the UK. Cathedral House lies on the fringe of Pontcanna on the desirable tree-lined Cathedral Road and within an important conservation area.

This is a residential setting with beautiful Victorian townhouses, mature trees and neatly trimmed hedgerows all adding to the authentic kerb appeal. Sophia Gardens, the River Taff, Cardiff Castle and the Millennium Stadium are literally moments away and almost all that the city has to offer is within walking distance.

Phase 2 of Cathedral House offers an exquisite selection of just four, 2 bedroom apartments and a stunning penthouse, with far-reaching views across the rooftops and over the city towards Cardiff Bay.

CARDIFF

SINCE CARDIFF BECAME THE CAPITAL OF WALES IN 1955, GONE IS MUCH OF ITS INDUSTRIAL PAST, REPLACED BY GLEAMING NEW DEVELOPMENTS, A CONFIDENT COMMERCIAL CENTRE AND A GROWING REPUTATION AS ONE OF THE UK'S TOP DESTINATIONS

The Welsh National Assembly and Millennium Centre on the rejuvenated Cardiff Bay waterfront and the fabulous city-centre sports stadiums reflect Cardiff's position as an international capital. On rugby match days the city is alive with good-natured fervour, especially when Wales meet their arch rivals England. This sociable, compact, atmospheric city has emerged as one of the greats of the 21st century.

OUT & ABOUT

CRAFTED COFFEE, AL FRESCO DINING, WATERFRONT CAFES, VICTORIAN ARCADES, ARTISAN FOODS AND INDOOR MARKETS

Cathedral House lies under a mile from the prestigious pedestrianised shopping precincts centred around Cardiff Castle on Queen Street, Mary Street and The Hayes. Head to St David's for designer brands including Hugo Boss, Armani Exchange, Kurt Geiger and the largest John Lewis outside of London.

The Victorian arcades and indoor market offer a profusion of independent outlets, upmarket lifestyle stores, artisan traders and cafes full of character. Cardiff's excellent eateries are mainly assembled within the city centre and in the captivating Mermaid Quay overlooking Cardiff Bay. This is one of the city's most cosmopolitan settings with sophisticated boutique shops and a vibrant nightlife as well as a chic range of international restaurants. Mermaid Quay also hosts a variety of events from art festivals to outdoor theatre and is the perfect place to clear the cobwebs on a lazy Sunday morning.

CATHEDRAL HOUSE

AS YOU WOULD EXPECT OF A CAPITAL CITY, TRANSPORT LINKS ARE COMPREHENSIVE, THE TRAVELLING IS EASY

Cardiff Central railway station is a major hub for many services and is located around a mile from Cathedral House.

Arriva Trains operate the majority of inter-Wales services and there are regular departures from Cardiff Central to the South Wales Valleys, Swansea, Manchester, Birmingham and London Paddington.

By road, the M4 is the major artery linking Cardiff with the rest of south Wales and across the Severn Bridge into England. This fast motorway route allows you to cover the 150 miles to London in around 3 hours and Bristol in less than an hour.

Cardiff International Airport is located some 12 miles to the south-west of the city and offers direct flights to London, Dublin, Belfast, Edinburgh, Newcastle and many European destinations.
